Postponement notice regarding the 20th China (Shanghai) International Optics Fair

On 26th January 2020, a working group meeting was hosted by China's premier Mr. Li Keqiang, to concert the Central Government's fight against the coronavirus epidemic, and to substantiate further effective measures to contain the outbreak. In light of the above-stated, it was decided that sizeable exhibitions, conventions and public events be postponed or cancelled. To echo, Shanghai Municipal Government has also promptly enacted the "Highest Level Emergency Level I" designation, deployed for major urgent public health incidents.

Subsequently in the morning of 28th January 2020, the organizing committee of the 20th China (Shanghai) International Optics Fair received instructions from both the Shanghai Municipal Commission of Commerce and Shanghai Municipal Police to postpone the event, originally scheduled to take place on February 11-13, 2020, to complement the Central Government's determination to curtail any forms of community outbreak of coronavirus via halting mass gatherings. Indeed, very close monitoring will be administered to the coming containment of coronavirus whilst the most appropriate coordination with all concerned parties in Shanghai will be implemented, so as to effect the best and most feasible arrangements pertaining to the postponement. Regarding the actual dates of the captioned postponement, the organizing committee of the the 20th China (Shanghai) International Optics Fair will stay in incessant touch with the Shanghai Municipal Government, all related bureaux and the venue management, and once details are confirmed, a second notice will be furnished.

The full and unreserved support of all exhibitors and professional visitors is indispensable to the success of China (Shanghai) International Optics Fair. Notwithstanding, during this critical moment of combating the coronavirus epidemic, what we genuinely treasure is the well-being, health and safety of your goodselves. Consequently, there appears to us no other alternatives and we are sorry for all the inconvenience and disruptions thus caused.

We also like this festive occasion to wish you all good health!

Conveyed by the organizing committee of the 20th China (Shanghai) International Optics Fair
